Charge Military Policeman With Worker's Murder

WAUKEGAN, Ill. (P)—Authorities said an off-duty military policeman on a drunken shooting spree barged up to a stranger's home and killed him with a pistol shot through a door.

Army Sgt. John Nall, 20, of Pensacola, Fla., was charged with murder Wednesday in the death of Dante Rubinielli, 46, a factory worker who came to this country from Italy last August.

Tuesday night Rubinielli was hit in the chest as he stood in the kitchen of his home in Highland Park, a residential community between this northern Illinois city and Chicago. He died in Highland Park Hospital without giving police a statement.

Just before Rubinielli was shot, a 15-year-old boy was shot in the leg as he walked down the street in Highland, a suburb adjoining Highland Park.

Police seized Nall, a military policeman at nearby Ft. Sheridan, near the scene. They said he was carrying a .32 caliber Beretta pistol with six cartridges. They quoted him as saying he originally had eight cartridges in the pistol and that he had been drinking heavily.

Nall signed a statement which he insisted on typing out himself. "I was definitely drunk," the statement said. It told of meeting two boys on the street who made "some derogatory remarks about the Army and its personnel."

"I told them to keep at ease (be silent). Then I grabbed my gun and went after them meaning to scare them."

He said he fired a shot in the ground, which apparently struck one of the boys, Robert Perry, in the leg. Then, Nall said, the next thing he remembered was "climbing some stairs and attempting to break down a door with my shoulder."

"A man inside the house screamed at me and I turned to face him and hit the door jamb and the gun went off. I got scared and left."

ROBBIE TAKES ADVANTAGE OF LONDON FOG — A robber snatched a mail bag containing 2,300 pounds — $64,400 — here Wednesday from a post office guard and escaped in England's worst fog of the season.

The fog delayed air, road and river traffic in much of the country. Londoners could see a maximum of 15 yards past the ends of their noses in midafternoon.

Expect Turncoat Tenneson's Arrival In Hong Kong Today

HONG KONG (P) — Richard R. Tenneson, American GI who elected to go to Red China after the Korean War, has been allowed to leave that country. It was reported Wednesday.

The British Red Cross received word from the Chinese Red Cross of Tenneson's release. He is expected here Thursday.

Tenneson was one of 21 turncoat GIs who denounced conditions in the United States and asked to be accepted in Red China as "free men." Peiping agreed to this on Jan. 27, 1954.

Earlier he had written his mother, Mrs. Portia Howe, of Alden, Minn., that he was staying with communism because, "I love peace. I love mankind."

His mother, convinced her son by a previous marriage had been thoroughly brainwashed by his Red captors, flew to Tokyo, hopeful of meeting him face to face, but the Army would not let her go to Korea. Richard, now 22, was captured in May 1951.

In a letter to Mrs. Howe last September, the soldier said he would be returning home soon. He said one of the reasons he wanted to leave China rested on "certain weaknesses in my character" that make it "very uncomfortable and impossible to stay."

Last January, he wrote his mother, saying, "I have never had a thought of disloyalty." "I am the same," he said. "The good old U.S. is my home. I couldn't really be at home anywhere else. I love the country, the people and everything about them because they are mine."

His mother said at her farm home in Minnesota Wednesday there is a plane ticket waiting for her son in Hong Kong. She said she arranged for his passage in September after he had written he would be returning home.

"I am happy, relieved and thankful to God," she said.

She made no predictions about what action might be taken against Tenneson by the U.S. Army when he returns, but said, "We'll take the rest of it as it comes."

Jacksonville Area Will Strive For Safe Dec. 1

The entire Jacksonville area will join the rest of the nation Thursday in striving for an accident free S-D (Safe Driving) Day.

Public officials from President Eisenhower on down the line have urged drivers to take it easy—to be careful on a day when safety will be stressed throughout the land. Pedestrians also have been cautioned to do their part in the mass movement for safety.

As the 24 hour period arrives it is clearly apparent that the burden rests in the minds and muscles of the drivers themselves—the individuals at the steering wheels of cars and trucks. Unless individual drivers remember the appeals of officials, and use their own common sense, S-D Day activities will be in vain.

The Jacksonville area could remain free of traffic accidents if every driver considered it his duty to obey every traffic law—to go all out for safety of himself and others. Thousands in this city signed safety pledges last week which were circulated by grade school children.

Traffic experts say safety and courtesy go hand-in-hand. Courteous drivers do not endanger themselves or others.

- Who are courteous drivers? They are those who will: Pull to the right to let another car pass; Give ample warning when making a left turn; Not follow the car in front too closely; Never cut-in front of another car; Allow cars from side streets to enter moving traffic; Slow down to prevent splashing people at the curb; Wait for pedestrians to pass before making a right turn; Never rely on the "other fellow" to avoid an accident.

Today Is S-D Day

CHICAGO (AP) — Today is S-D Day — the day you try harder than ever to stay alive and save other lives.

The safe driving day campaign is a mammoth effort to cut traffic deaths through extra caution. Each motorist and pedestrian plays a vital role.

The nation has come to the eve of S-D Day with a 1955 highway safety record that gives safety experts little to cheer about.

The National Safety Council reported Wednesday that nearly 31,000 persons were killed on America's highways the first 10 months this year — a 7 per cent increase over 1954.

The October traffic toll of 3,920 is 12 per cent ahead of the corresponding 1954 month and the largest for any one month since the record high total of December 1941.

"If anyone thinks S-D Day is just a lot of shouting about nothing, stop and think about these figures," said Ned H. Dearborn, safety council president.

"S-D Day is a one-day effort to wake people up. The auto is here to stay, but I have my doubts about a lot of drivers if they keep up this flagrant lack of responsibility on the highways."

The President's Committee for Traffic Safety designated Thursday, Dec. 1 as S-D Day for two purposes: To achieve a sharp reduction in traffic accidents on that day and every day, and to demonstrate that safe driving is a necessity on ordinary weekdays as well as on weekends and during holiday periods.

On the first S-D Day last Dec. 15, 51 persons met sudden death on the streets and highways. However, officials decided that the occasion helped, somewhat.

Police departments and civic organizations across the country will make a special effort Thursday to cut down traffic deaths. Banners urging motorists to drive safely have been draped along many streets. President Eisenhower appealed to all Americans to help reduce accidents.

The Associated Press will conduct a continuous nationwide survey of traffic deaths throughout the day. An AP spot survey on Thursday, Nov. 17—a comparable day—showed 69 traffic fatalities.

To determine the effectiveness of the safety drive over a broader period, the National Safety Council will keep a count of traffic fatalities during the period 10 days before and 10 days after S-D Day.

The council saw slight consolation in the fact that the volume of travel is increasing faster than deaths this year. Deaths per 100 million miles of travel dropped to six the first nine months this year, a new low.

DR. WHITE: IKE WILL HAVE TO MAKE OWN DECISION

GASTONIA, N. C. (P)—President Eisenhower will have to make his own decision about seeking a second term, Dr. Paul Dudley White declared Wednesday.

The Boston heart specialist who has attended the President during his recent illness said Eisenhower's political future is something that he alone must decide.

"If he runs, I'll vote for him," White said in an interview.

White was here to make two addresses at a medical meeting.

White said Eisenhower has made good progress, and that he intends to give the President another checkup in about two weeks.

Education Parley Studies Problems

Few States Can Meet School Building Needs

WASHINGTON (P) — The White House conference on education Wednesday accepted a report saying that few states seem ready to meet their school building needs.

This is true, said a report drafted after discussions among the 1,800 participating delegates, even though no state has demonstrated it couldn't raise the money.

The report, on "What Are Our School Building Needs?" was drawn up by Earl H. Beling, a Moline, Ill., consulting engineer, and Elmer W. Rowley, head of Joliet Junior College in Illinois. It was received with applause and without objection by the delegates.

Under the rules of the conference, there is no actual voting on reports. These findings are drafted by representatives of study groups composed of delegates.

The Beling-Rowley report said: "It appears that under present plans only two of three states have been quoted as stating that they can meet their building needs for the next five years."

"Under the present plans and time limitations stipulated it seems to be virtually impossible for most of the states to meet school building needs."

"The general consensus was this: No state has demonstrated financial incapacity to build the schools it will need during the next five years."

"But with the exception of a few states, none of the states presently has plans which indicate a political determination powerful enough to overcome all of the obstacles."

While the Beling-Rowley report said nothing specifically on the subject of federal aid, it got at the question indirectly, by stating: "Some territories and a few states may need outside financial assistance."

What states and territories were meant was not disclosed.

As soon as this report was read the delegates plunged into the critical question of federal aid.

The report on that subject won't come until the conference ends Thursday night.

Another report Wednesday seemingly scolded the U.S. Office of Education but conference officials said it probably will be amended to remove that impression.

This report, on "In What Ways Can We Organize Our School Systems More Efficiently and Economically?" included the statement that:

"The contract of the federal government should be confined to state level contacts and not made directly with local boards except as mutually agreed by the three levels."

WOULD BAN USELESS CAR GADGETS

KITCHENER, Ont. (P) — Magistrate J. R. H. Kirkpatrick says motorists should stop putting useless gadgets on their cars. He spoke out in imposing a $10 fine and costs on a motorist who explained he got into a collision when a pinwheel on his steering gear caught in his overcoat as he tried to make a turn.

NEW CAUSE FOR DIVORCE

CARDIFF, Wales (P) — Mrs. Esme Morgan testified in divorce court her husband looked at her new hairdo and said: "You look like a Zulu. All you need is a ring through your nose." Verdict: Divorce granted for cruelty.

MARIE DIONNE BETTER, TO GO HOME SOON

NORTH BAY, Ont. (P) — Quintuplet Marie Dionne, ill in a Montreal hospital, is "steadily improving" and is expected to come to her home near Callander within the new few days, her father, Olivia Dionne, said Wednesday.

Mrs. Dionne visited Marie in Montreal last weekend. Earlier in the month the 21-year-old girl left a cloistered convent in Quebec City where she was training to become a nun.

"The doctor told Mrs. Dionne that Marie's condition was never as serious as first reported," the father said. "She is not suffering from anemia, as was first thought; rather, she is completely run down, tired and disappointed that she found it necessary to leave the convent."

RECORD VETS ENROLLMENT

WASHINGTON (P)—The Veterans Administration announces that fall enrollments of veterans under the Korean GI Bill have set a record for the 3-year-old training program.

Incomplete reports show that nearly 610,000 Korea veterans were in training Nov. 1. Some 451,000 veterans were enrolled a year ago.

Consider Teacher Shortage

WASHINGTON (AP) — All over the nation the perplexing question bobs up: What can be done about the teacher shortage?

Wednesday at the White House conference on education nine determined persons sat down at table 3 and tried to dig out some answers.

To the outsider, the conference is run strangely. Table 3 is but one of 166, and all the groups worry about the same subject simultaneously. Their thoughts are sent along and refined until, finally, the pure, distilled, composite thoughts of everyone are supposed to come trickling out.

Table 3 appeared to be especially good for visiting Wednesday since nearly every member either is, or was, a teacher.

You'll get some idea of how the talk went from this: One question was, "What do we mean by 'enough' 'good' teachers?" The word "enough" was debated 15 minutes, and "good" was good for 20 more.

Everyone agreed, though, that good teaching is what makes the wheels go round.

"So many persons," Miss Harriet Nash, a pre-school expert from Kensington, Conn., said, "think that if they've got good buildings, they've got good schools."

John Herrick of Columbus, Ohio, agreed this was a mistake, even though he's a specialist in school buildings. "No question about it," Herrick said, "teachers are the heart of any school."

Someone wondered if the ratio of 30 pupils for each grade school classroom is ideal. James A. Perkins, a member of the Princeton, N. J., School Board, didn't think much of using that statistic.

"The trouble with it is," Perkins said, "that there won't be enough new teachers coming from our colleges to make it possible. It can't be done."

Mrs. Elizabeth Binda, a Battle Creek, Mich., housewife and a former teacher had another point: "We do not have any valid proof that the 30 pupils per teacher is right, anyway. What we need in education is some creative experimentation."

Miss Margaret Root, a Philadelphia counselor and a representative of the AFL Pennsylvania Federation of Teachers, said the worst part of it is that her high school youngsters look over the teaching situation, and decide to go into something else.

"You mean," Perkins said, "they don't like what they see?" "That's right," Miss Root said.

There was a thoughtful pause at Table 3. Then they went doggedly back to work, digging for more answers.

Andrew Jackson was the first U. S. President to travel by train.

Faure's Defeat Apparently Turns Into Victory

PARIS (P)—The French Cabinet decided Wednesday night to dissolve the National Assembly and hold new elections.

At this stage, Premier Edgar Faure appeared to have turned a seeming defeat into victory. He has been campaigning all along for early elections, but the devious approach to them was a surprise—even in French politics.

Tuesday the Assembly gave Faure a vote of no-confidence, usually the signal for the government's immediate resignation. But the size of the Assembly vote against him brought into play an obscure constitutional provision permitting the Cabinet to order dissolution.

The unprecedented decision was announced Wednesday night following a 3½-hour Cabinet session at the Elysee Palace, the French White House. No date was given for the elections, but they must come between 20 and 30 days after the dissolution order is handed down.

Another report Wednesday seemingly scolded the U.S. Office of Education but conference officials said it probably will be amended to remove that impression.

This report, on "In What Ways Can We Organize Our School Systems More Efficiently and Economically?" included the statement that:

"The contract of the federal government should be confined to state level contacts and not made directly with local boards except as mutually agreed by the three levels."

State Authority On Child Welfare Addresses Panel

Miss Naomi Hiett, executive secretary of the Illinois Commission on Children, spoke Tuesday night at the second of a series of meetings in the Area Youth Leadership program held at the Youth Center. Miss Hiett's topic was "What Other Communities are Doing to Improve Youth Activities."

The speaker told of activities in counties and cities throughout the State, thus presenting ideas to the group gathered which might be considered in the light of needs in Jacksonville and Morgan county. Alarm over delinquency and destructiveness during summer months caused civic organizations in Pope county to combine their forces and form an employment agency for youth. Lake county established a Mental Hygiene Society to educate and promote better mental health in the community; a group of nurses in Macoupin county paved the way for specialized health services by pooling resources in the area and eliminating treatment in other outlying localities.

A detention home was built in Winnebago county after the passing of a bond issue to provide adequate housing for delinquent and youthful offenders that previously were kept with adults in the county jail or returned to their homes. Madison county made a detailed study of child welfare needs and made recommendations for action.

Six counties in northern Illinois combined to make a study concerning children, 7 to 16, who for some reason were not receiving education. Out of the study came a request to make a state wide study. As a result of the request the Illinois Commission on Children received a $12,000 grant to do this. It was announced that if Morgan county wanted to be included in the survey a group of citizens would have to make a request to the Illinois Commission on Children's office in Springfield.

At the conclusion of Miss Hiett's talk, questions were asked, answered and a discussion period held. Problems such as housing, family welfare, employment possibilities for children, were dealt with.

CEMETERY IN FACTORY

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP)—A small family cemetery stands in stark contrast near a big manufacturing plant here. The Everett family, which sold the site for the plant more than a quarter-century ago, retained ownership of the plot.

Family members say a rose bush which still blooms in the cemetery, against a drab industrial backdrop, is more than 100 years old.

SPEEDY SERVICE

STAUNTON, Va. (AP)—Joseph H. Walton of Staunton rates the postoffice at Clifton Forge tops in speed. He received a letter here Oct. 10 postmarked in Clifton Forge on Oct. 11 at 2:30 p.m.

SINS OF THE CHILDREN

CONWAY, Ark. (AP)—Youngsters who roam the streets of this Arkansas city after 11 p.m. are likely to get their parents in trouble. People under 18 years old must be off the streets by 11 o'clock. Parents of violators are subject to a fine of between $1 and $25 and a jail sentence of from one to 30 days.

POLICE GET THEIR GOAT

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Two Canadian sailors from the destroyer Cayuga told police a brown goat was the ship's mascot.

The police took sailors and goat to the pier where the Cayuga was tied up. The ship's guard said they had never seen the goat before but they recognized the sailors. Goat went to the city pound. The sailors were taken aboard.

Mrs. Sheets And Husband Head Carrollton OES

CARROLLTON — Mrs. W. C. Sheets was installed as worthy matron and her husband, W. C. Sheets installed as worthy patron at the annual installation ceremony of Temple Chapter No. 325 which was held Monday evening in the Masonic Temple. The retiring worthy matron was Mrs. Alfred Johnson and Howard Kessie the retiring worthy patron.

Other officers installed were Mrs. Adrian Read, associate matron; Howard Kessie, associate patron; Mrs. Walter Preston, secretary; Miss Margaret Eldred, treasurer; Mrs. Richard Giller, conductress; Mrs. Clarence Horn, associate conductress; Mrs. Callie Short, chaplain; Mrs. Howard Kessie, marshal; Mrs. Nita Ford, organist; Mrs. Raymond Swann, Adah; Mrs. LaVerne Maston, Ruth; Mrs. Oren Siebermann, Esther; Mrs. Alice Chapman, Martha; Mrs. Donald Moss, Electa; and Mrs. Jack Woods, sentinel. Mrs. Dean Martin who was appointed warder was unable to be present.

The soloist for the installation service was Miss Lois Korty of the music department of the Carrollton Community Unit School District No. 1, and her accompanist was Miss Nita Ford. Miss Korty sang "Bless This House" following the opening prayer of the installing chaplain, Mrs. Ivan Beebe and "I Love You Truly" as the worthy matron elect and received her obligation at the altar. As the worthy patron elect received his obligation Miss Korty sang "My Task." As both Mr. and Mrs. Sheets were escorted to their chairs they were met by their small daughter, Rita Sue Sheets, who presented a gift of flowers to each of them. Little Miss Sheets also presented a gift to the retiring worthy matron, Mrs. Alfred Johnson after the jewels had been presented to the retiring worthy matron and patron by Mrs. Adrian Read, the associate matron and before the presentations of gifts from the chapter to the retiring officers by Mrs. Clarence Horn, associate conductress and Mrs. Richard Giller, conductress. As the retiring worthy matron and patron signed the Bible at the altar Miss Korty sang "The End of a Perfect Day."

The chapter room was decorated for the candlelight installation service with palms and a basket of yellow and white chrysanthemums, a gift to the new worthy matron from her family. White tapers in tall candelabras were lighted by Miss Jean Ann Sheets, daughter of the worthy matron and patron and Miss Marilyn Mehl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Mehl. The Ode to the Flag was given by Miss Jacqueline Horn, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harold Horn and the color bearer for the evening was Florus Volles Sr.

The installing officers were Mrs. Alfred Johnson, worthy matron; S. E. Pierson, worthy patron; Mrs. H. H. Levi, marshal; Mrs. Ivan Beebe, chaplain and Floyd Hunt of Wood River, organist. The installing officers were escorted into the chapter room by Alfred Johnson, John Volles and Harvel Wilson all members of the Masonic fraternity.

HE WAS THIRSTY, THAT'S WHY—A fellow has a hard time these automobile days finding a place to water his horse. But Joseph Lorio solved the problem in Pittsfield, Mass., by riding into a tavern and ordering a couple for "King," the horse. King, being only six years old, got no more than water from Frank Koldys, the bartender.

BABY ARRIVES, CAR LEAVES

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Ruey C. Collins parked his car three parking meters from police headquarters at 4:30 a.m. and went into a hospital. Several hours later he emerged as the proud father of a baby girl but found his car missing.

Overtime parking? Car towed away? Nope, the police said. They knew nothing about it.

CARPENTER VOTED MOST VALUABLE FOR ROUGHRIDERS

Oklahoma, Notre Dame And 4 Big Ten Schools Corner Midwest Team

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
CHICAGO (P)—Oklahoma's national champions, Notre Dame and four Big Ten schools cornered all 11 positions on the 1955 All-Midwestern football team named Wednesday by The Associated Press.
Those landing spots on the line-up, selected by a poll of coaches, scouts and AP sports writers, included:
Notre Dame—back Don Schaefer, center Jim Mense and guard Pat Biscaglia.
Oklahoma—back Tommy McDonald and guard Bo Bolinger.
Michigan—ends Ron Kramer and Tom Maentz.
Ohio State—back Howard Cassidy and tackle Jim Parker.
Michigan State—back Earl Morrall.
Iowa—tackle Calvin Jones.
Three holdovers from the 1954 honor team were the 220-pound Jones, shifted from guard to tackle on the lineup; Kramer and Cassidy, who led the Buckeyes to their second straight Big Ten title.
The naming of Kramer and 219-pound Maentz marked the first time a pair of ends from the same school made the mythical team.
Cassidy and Oklahoma's fancy-running McDonald scored 15 and 16 touchdowns, respectively, this season.
The shrewd play-calling, ball-

CHICAGO (P)—With the football season scarcely ended, Midwest collegiate basketball bounces into full swing this weekend with defending Big Ten champion Iowa among more than a dozen major teams peeling off the wraps.
As far as the Big Ten is concerned, the pre-championship campaign starts Thursday night as Wisconsin is host to Butler. The same night, Notre Dame invades Detroit.

Saturday, Iowa's Hawkeyes, co-favored with Illinois in the 1955-56 Big Ten race, entertain Nebraska in a televised contest, while six other conference teams also launch their seasons in non-loop competition.

Indiana—rebuilding without graduated Don Schmidt—Gretchen Ohio University; Michigan is at Pittsburgh; Western Michigan is at Pittsburgh; Northwestern; Ohio State visits Butler; De Paul appears at Minnesota; and Purdue is host to Missouri.

Illinois starts its season Tuesday at home against Butler, while the last Big Ten starter is Michigan State, entertaining Southern Illinois Dec. 13.

Iowa has four regulars back from last season's well-balanced club, but one is inactive at this time. He is Sharn Scheuerman, who suffered a kidney injury playing tough football. On hand, however, are such able Hawkeyes as Carl Cain, Bill Logan and Bill Seaberg, plus seasoned Bill Schoof, slowed last season with a knee injury.

Illinois' last season's Big Ten runnerup with Minnesota, also has a fine nucleus of veterans including George Bon Salle, Paul Judson, Bill Altenberger, Marv Schmidt, Bruce Brothers and Bill Ridley.

In addition, the Illini may have one of the season's top sophomores, 6-7 center Del Calazza.

Sophomores also may determine if Indiana may make it a "three I" conference race with Iowa and Illinois. The Hoosiers have two of the finest Chicago prep players in recent years coming up in as sophs, Charley Brown and Paxton Lumpkin.

The Hoosier will sorely miss the scoring ability of Schmidt, but may turn up as one of the Big Ten's fastest clubs.

WHITE SOX PURCHASE APARICIO FROM MEMPHIS
COLUMBUS, Ohio (P)—The Chicago White Sox Wednesday announced purchase of Luis Aparicio, 21-year-old Venezuelan shortstop from their Memphis farm club of the Southern Assn.

Aparicio is expected to be the leading candidate for the regular shortstop position left vacant by the trade of Chico Carrasquel to Cleveland last month.

The 5-foot, 9-inch youngster batted .273 at Memphis last year and led the Southern Assn. in stolen bases with 48. He was named the league's all-star shortstop.

LASALLE PLAYER BREAKS ANKLE IN PRACTICE
PHILADELPHIA (P)—LaSalle College basketball team received a tough break Wednesday when Bob Maples, star 6-5 center, broke his ankle in a practice session. He is expected to be out of action for at least two months.

Naples, who played on LaSalle's 1954 NCAA champions and on last year's 1955 NCAA runnerups.

handing, passing and punting of Morrall were main factors in making Rose Bowl-bound Michigan State one of the nation's best teams. Fullback Schaefer was the key to Notre Dame's ground attack.

Biscaglia was Notre Dame's defensive signal-caller and a fine blocking guard on offense. His teammate, center Mense, averaged better than 50 minutes per game.

The 242-pound Parker, like Jones, was moved from his normal guard position to tackle.

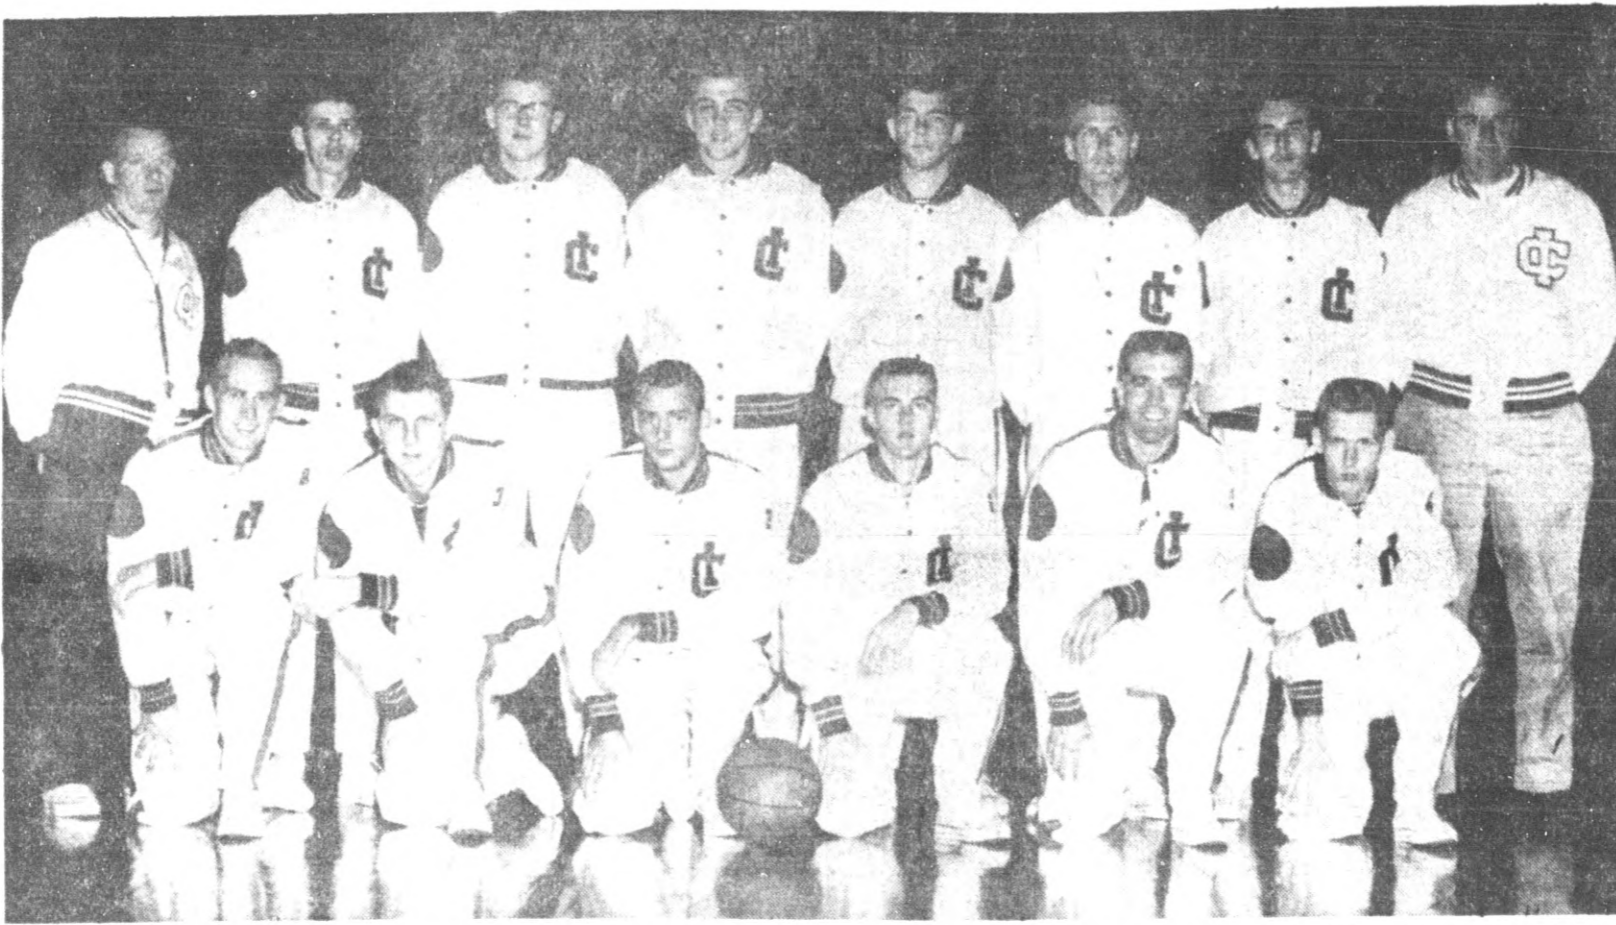

Seldom has the area produced so many fine guards, the 208-pound Bolinger typifying them in gearing Oklahoma's line in the Sooners drive to an undefeated campaign.

Michigan State's exceptional tackle, Norm Masters, and great guard-captain, Bucky Nystrom, missed first-team recognition by the barest of margins.

They won second team berths along with ends Lamar Lundy of Purdue and Harold Burnine of Missouri; tackle Bob Hobert, Minnesota; guard Francis Machinsky, Ohio State, and center Jerry Tubbs of Oklahoma.

The second team backfield was made up of Len Dawson, Purdue; Paul Hornung, Notre Dame; Earl Lunsford, Oklahoma A & M; and Tirrel Burton of undefeated Miami of Ohio.

American Assn. Eliminates Miami For Toledo Shift

COLUMBUS, Ohio (P)—Miami was eliminated Wednesday by consideration by the American Assn. as a site for the Toledo franchise.

Ed Doherty, association president, came out of a league meeting to make the following brief statement:

"The schedule presented here at the request of the owners of the Toledo club Milwaukee was studied and after the directors considered it, it was the opinion of the league that it was not feasible."

Doherty declined to elaborate on the statement and would not say whether the proposed Miami move ever came up for a vote.

The league went back into session with Milwaukee now prepared to seek another site. Toledo remained an outside possibility with a local group trying to save the club. Knoxville also was under consideration.

There also was a possibility that a city in another league, perhaps the Western League, might be drafted. The league would not even hint at such a move, but there were reports that Wichita and Des Moines might be considered.

The deadline for drafting territory by a minor league team is Thursday.

CASSADY RECEIVES MAXWELL CLUB AWARD
PHILADELPHIA (P)—Howard (Hopalong) Cassidy, Ohio State's All-America halfback, today was selected unanimously to receive the Robert W. Maxwell Club award as the number one college football player of the year.

Bert Bell, commissioner of the National Football League and president of the club, announced the selection of Cassidy as the 19th player to receive the honor. Ron Beagle of Navy won it last year.

Cassidy, who Tuesday was named winner of the Heisman Memorial Trophy as the player of the year, was third in the nation in rushing this year with 958 yards. He was the 10th in total offense with 997 yards on 171 plays.

FAN BREEZES

BY STAN SPOTTS

Jacksonville restaurateur Mrs. Virginia Padgett Ziegler is shown here with a group of fellow anglers during her sojourn in Hawaii. She stands at left of a 160-pound Pacific marlin, taken from Hawaiian waters by herself in a 15-minute battle. Mrs. Ziegler plans to remain in the Islands until December 31.

Fans who attend the IC game Saturday will have a chance to see the team that has been picked to win the Prairie College Conference, Greenville.

The college rules have changed its free throw lane from the regulation 6 foot to 12 foot. It will be interesting to watch how this new rule will affect the team on offense.

JHS will participate in the 4 team tournament at Edwardsville this Saturday. Anyone wanting tickets for the afternoon and evening sessions may purchase them at Mr. Agger's office.

George Latham

Quincy coach George Latham was looking the JHS squad over Tuesday night. Could he be looking ahead to the March finals. After checking the schedule, Quincy will play here in the Crimson's four team tournament Dec. 22. Latham claims to have lost a lot of height on his squad this year, but time will tell, George.

Howard Johnson, regular forward for coach John Chapman's squad didn't dress for the Taylorville game because of an old knee injury. However, the knee is coming along fine and should be back in action Friday.

White Sox Send Trucks To Tigers For John Phillips

BY JOE REICHLER

COLUMBUS, Ohio (P)—Detroit and Chicago completed the first major trade of the baseball meetings Wednesday. The Tigers reacquiring veteran right-hander Virgil Trucks from the White Sox in exchange for reserve outfielder John "Bubba" Phillips.

It was only the second deal involving major league players since the baseball people arrived last Sunday. The Chicago Cubs recently dealt relief pitcher Hal Jeffcoat to Cincinnati for second string catcher Hobie Landrith. But Jeffcoat's subsequent announcement that he intended to retire from the game has caused complications.

The Tigers' acquisition of Trucks gives rise to the suspicion they plan to pass on the aging right-hander to the New York Yankees for younger talent. Detroit had hoped to draft infielder Herb Plews, a Yankee farm hand at Denver, but were thwarted when Pittsburgh drafted pitcher Jack McMahon from Denver to close up that club.

The acquisition of the 36-year-old Trucks adds pitching help to the Tigers who openly admitted they must have more pitching to improve their fifth-place position of last year.

"I'm counting on Trucks to be a regular starter next season," said Tiger Manager Bucky Harris.

Trucks had a 13-8 won-lost record with a 3.96 earned run percentage last year, but he won 20 games in 1953 and 19 in 1954.

The Birmingham, Ala., native first joined the Tigers in 1942 and was with them until December 1952 when he was traded to the St. Louis Browns.

Phillips appeared in 95 games for the Tigers last year in the outfield and at third base. The 25-year-old speedster batted .234, drove in 24 runs and hit three home runs.

Wes Santee Keeps Amateur Standing With AAU Group

By KYLE VANCE

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (P)—Wes Santee, this country's fastest miller, kept his amateur standing Wednesday as the deadline passed for protesting his return to the good graces of the Amateur Athletic Union.

Unless complicated parliamentary procedure revives the case later, the rapid Kansan will be eligible to run for the United States in the 1956 Olympics as well as participate in other amateur events.

The Olympic Track and Field Committee of the AAU was in session Wednesday as time elapsed on the period in which a protest could be filed by the Registration Committee that suspended him.

Santee had been accused of accepting expense money in excess of the AAU limit of $12 a day. The suspension was rescinded 10 days ago by the Missouri Valley Assn. of the AAU.

The starting lineup for the IC Blueboys game at Western tonight: Rog Curfman and Jim Bonds at forwards; Ed Harrell will be at the center slot; Bill Merris and Dick Barnes will handle the chores out front.

Blueboys Tangle With Macomb's 10 Returning Lettermen Tonight

Coach Al Miller's Illinois College Blueboys open their 1955-56 basketball season Thursday, December 1, when they journey to Macomb for a non-conference battle with the highly touted Western Illinois State five.

This year's Blueboy case quieted is sparked by the return of eight lettermen, including Jim Bonds who returns to IC after a two year hitch in the army. Before entering the service, Bonds was the Blueboy top scorer in the days when IC was a member of the CCI loop. Other remaining lettermen include high scoring center Ed Harrell, Roger Curfman, Glenn Beamer, Bill Oldenettel, Dick Barnes, Bill Merris and Todd Renfro. Merris is the only senior member of the squad. Promising newcomers include Roger Ezard, Edwin Batley, John O'Neill, Carl Moore, Harold Merris, Jim Woodward and Jim Clancy.

The Blueboys, who finished third in the Prairie College conference play last year, open loop action Saturday, December 3, against Greenville. Even though the Blueboys dropped two games to Greenville last year, coach Miller feels this year's quint has a good chance of getting off on the right foot in their conference activity.

"Although we're young, we've got boys who have played two and three years of varsity ball and this experience should begin to pay off this year," was the way the Blueboy mentor put it.

Included in this year's schedule is a four team holiday tournament to be played Saturday, December 17, in the IC gym. It will be an afternoon-evening affair.

FERRIS FAIN SIGNS WITH SACRAMENTO
SACRAMENTO, Calif. (P)—Ferris Fain, twice batting champion of the American League, Wednesday was signed by the Sacramento Solons as a player-coach.

Although bothered by an injured knee, the veteran first baseman is expected to add lefthanded power to the Solons, who finished last in the 1955 Pacific Coast League race.

ROSE BOWL COACHES WANT TO STUDY FILMS
LOS ANGELES (P)—UCLA coach Red Sanders Wednesday selected for study before the Jan. 2 Rose Bowl game movies of Michigan State's loss to Michigan, 7-14, and the Spartans victory over Wisconsin, 27-0.

MSU Coach Daugherty Tuesday asked for films of UCLA's wins over Stanford, 21-13, and Southern California, 17-7.

The picks were made by mutual consent of the bowl opponents.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL ASSN. OF PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL LEAGUES, in a speech before the minor league convention here, called on baseball men everywhere to "lift their eyes beyond all considerations of what is good 'for me' or 'my club' or 'my league' and ask one simple question—what is good for baseball?"

Trautman said the impact of major league radio and TV in minor league territory remains the No. 1 problem of the minors.

He said "a definite program seems finally to be shaping up in the major leagues, and we are hopeful that some concessions will be made the minors in 1957, if not before." Ridiculed the report that baseball is "dying on the vine" with the promise that "we have just begun to fight."

BASILIO WAS TRAILING on the three officials' cards for the first 11 rounds. Referee Manning had it 106-103, judge Joe Santoro had it 104-97 and judge Joe Santaripio had it 106-103. The Associated Press had DeMarco leading 103-101.

Basilio said afterwards he hurt his left hand in the second round, but he knew he was going to get his opponent from the fifth round on.

In the seventh round DeMarco had the iron-chinned champion on the verge of defeat. A right to the jaw staggered Basilio and a left hook had Basilio reeling rubber-leggedly but he hung on grimly.

The over-anxious DeMarco came on for the kill, then missed three tremendous swings.

That was Tony's big chance and he blew it.

Each fighter weighed 145½ pounds.

Basilio then fired away with both hands, and as the referee started to rush over to stop the slaughter, Carmen unloaded another right that sent Tony slumping to the canvas. There was no count. The referee just gathered Tony in his arms as Basilio danced jubilantly around the ring.

Minor League Boss Tells Majors They Should Cooperate

COLUMBUS, Ohio (P)—George M. Trautman Wednesday challenged the major leagues to forget about "the almighty dollar" and warned that unless the majors cooperate unselfishly, the minor leagues "will shortly be unable to furnish the recruits for major league play."

The president of the National Assn. of Professional Baseball Leagues, in a speech before the minor league convention here, called on baseball men everywhere to "lift their eyes beyond all considerations of what is good 'for me' or 'my club' or 'my league' and ask one simple question—what is good for baseball?"

Carmen Basilio Makes Comeback; Stops Tony DeMarco In 12 Rounds

By MURRAY ROSE
BOSTON (P)—In almost a duplicate of his title winning effort, welterweight champion Carmen Basilio blasted his way from the brink of defeat Wednesday night to stop lethal-punching Tony DeMarco of Boston in 1:54 of the 12th round of another vicious title battle.

Hurt repeatedly in the fiery scrap and reeling from the 23-year-old Bostonian's power punches in the seventh round, the 28-year-old Marine from Canastota, N.Y., chopped down his squad opponent twice in the 12th to send referee Mel Manning to the local prize's rescue.

It took the battle-scarred Basilio just two seconds more to do the job this time than he required in Syracuse, June 10, when he halted Tony in 1:52 of the 12th.

With a capacity crowd of 13,373 contributing a record Boston gate of $171,800, Basilio caught up to his tiring rival in the 12th with a tremendous right to the jaw which shook DeMarco in his tracks.

Another stunning right pitched Tony on his back. DeMarco slowly climbed to his feet at the count of eight.

New York Bond Market

NEW YORK (AP)—Selected rails and utilities performed well in a mixed bond market Wednesday. U. S. Treasury securities posted their first advance since Thanksgiving.

Corporate volume amounted to $3,480,000 par value compared to $3,560,000 Tuesday.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market went ahead in vigorous trading Wednesday with the averages at noon touching the historic high of Sept. 23 before receding a bit.

When the Associated Press 60-stock average was up 80 cents to $181.50 at noon it had erased the estimated 13 billion dollar loss in the quoted value of securities listed on the New York Stock Exchange in the sharp break of Sept. 26 following news of President Eisenhower's heart attack.

The AP averages closed at $181, however, only 30 cents higher than Tuesday. The industrials were up 40 cents, the rails 20 cents and the utilities 10 cents.

Trading volume totaled 2,900,000 shares in the most active market since the selloff Oct. 11 when 3,590,000 shares changed hands. Tuesday's volume was 2,370,000 shares.

Gains ranging to $1 or better were scattered throughout major divisions while individual stocks surged well beyond this. There were some losers, as well, among the key issues.

The market was higher from the start and aircrafts were favorites in the early part of the session. They turned irregular. Airlines sprang to life later. Steels and rails also jumped into the spotlight.

The American Stock Exchange also was higher and more active with 950,000 shares traded compared with 890,000 Tuesday.

GRAINS CLOSE HIGHER WITH BEANS SHOWING THREE CENT GAIN

By WILLIAM FERRIS
CHICAGO (AP)—A late runup left most grains higher on the Board of Trade Wednesday. Soybeans came to the fore on the rally and closed with gains extending to three cents.

Grains had fluctuated in a rather nervous manner prior to the late rally, and usually at prices below the previous close. Heavy deliveries of cash grain on December contracts were a drag, even though expected in most cases.

Wheat closed unchanged to 3/4 higher, corn 1/4 lower to 1 cent higher, oats 1/4 higher, rye 3/4 lower to 3/8 higher, soybeans 1 to 3 cents higher and lard 12 to 20 cents a hundred pounds higher.

Buying in soybeans was stimulated partly by firming prices in soybean oil and soybean meal. Oil sold at 10 1/2 cents a pound, up 1/4, while meal was unchanged to 50 cents higher at $47.00 a ton.

The Census Bureau revealed soybean crushings in October were very large, amounting to 25,387,000 bushels. This compared with 21,735,000 a year earlier.

Reports of heavy stocks of soybeans at mills were confirmed. At the end of October these totaled 74,133,000 bushels compared with 20,633,000 a month earlier and 37,112,000 a year ago.

Corn drew strength from the fact cash prices held firm. Only 160 shares of cash corn arrived No. 2 yellow corn was quoted at the price of the December future. A couple of weeks ago the cash grain was selling at a discount of eight cents.

Legion Plays Santa For Non-Compensated Vets

The American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Illinois, will hold its annual Christmas Gift Shop for non-compensated veterans at the Jacksonville State Hospital at one o'clock Thursday afternoon, Dec. 1, in the veterans school.

A survey has been made and 240 gifts will be selected by these veterans for their children, wives or fathers and mothers. This is one of the services made possible through the sale of the veteran-made poppy that is held in May of each year by the Legion.

Each gift is selected by the veteran and then Christmas wrapped and mailed to his family with no cost to the veteran.

Mrs. Fred Kendall, of Watske, is the American Legion, Department of Illinois, Auxiliary gift shop chairman, and will be in Jacksonville Thursday to help Mrs. C. C. Livenood, American Legion Auxiliary hospital chairman at the Jacksonville State Hospital and her committee of Legionnaires and Auxiliary women from the Jacksonville post 279 to conduct the shop.

The following people will help with the shop: Mrs. Frances Berger, Lela Underbrink, Louise Sager, Irene Vernon, Elizabeth Doolin.

Stevenson Raps Housing Cutback By Administration

MIAMI Fla. (AP)—Adlai Stevenson told the nation's mayors Wednesday that the Eisenhower administration had pushed through a federal housing cutback at a time when the need for better type dwellings was increasing.

He urged an immediate start on a "realistic" housing program backed by federal aid and government incentives to private industry to meet what he said was the most pressing problem brought about by expansion of urban centers.

A three-point program recommended by the Democratic presidential hopeful to the American Municipal Assn. would call for:

1. Federal aid for public housing measured "not by the limitations of false economy but only by the needs of our lowest income families."

2. A system of practical government incentives that will bring decent private housing within the reach of the middle-income group.

3. An all-out attack by local, state and federal governments on the problem of slum clearance and urban redevelopment.

Police Seek Couple Believed Victims Of Maniac Killer

LEBANON, Ill. (AP)—Spurred on by a blood-plattered and bullet-riddled home, authorities searched vainly Wednesday for a carpenter and his attractive wife who are believed victims of a maniac killer.

The 100-man search party, fanning out to a 15-20 mile radius of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith, looked in creeks, ravines, wooded areas and under bridges for the bodies.

No trace of the couple was found. Smith, 30, and his 35-year-old wife, Arlene, were last heard from Sunday night. The search got underway Tuesday night after the bloody scene was discovered.

"This is the crime of a maniac," declared Clifford Flood, St. Clair County deputy sheriff.

Officers theorized the couple was slain in their home and the bodies dragged into a car and taken away between 8 and 8:30 p.m. Sunday.

As the search continued, officers expressed the opinion that the lag in time between the incident and its discovery was hampering the investigation.

Robbery was quickly ruled out as a possible motive when the Smith's 1954 car was found in the garage with the keys still in the ignition. About $85 in cash was found on a dressing table and a watch and jewelry valued at about $400 located in the same spot.

Blood was splattered on the floor of all five rooms of the home about one mile east of Lebanon, which is 25 miles east of St. Louis. There were at least five bullet holes in the windows and front doors.

Suspect Try To Hinder Merger

Carey then replied directly to Lewis.

"The UMW letter said the mine union 'extended services and cash totaling approximately $7,250,000' in the days when the CIO was getting started. All but $1,665,000 has been repaid, the letter asserted."

A UMW spokesman declined to say what the UMW would do if the money was not repaid. Asked if he expected the CIO to take the matter up at its convention opening tomorrow, he said, "I would assume that's the honorable thing to do."

The AFL and CIO Wednesday completed final plans for formation of a single 16-million-member union federation.

The AFL Executive Council unanimously approved the merger arrangements a step taken a day earlier by the CIO Executive board.

Leaders received word that President Eisenhower will address the opening session of a joint AFL-CIO convention Monday from his Gettysburg, Pa., headquarters by a closed telephone circuit.

Union chiefs felt the President will use the occasion to promote Republican party policy toward organized labor.

More instances of beatings, shootings, property damage and picket line disturbances seem to have flared up in 1955 than in several years before.

Nobody keeps any statistics on labor violence but officials estimate it happens in only a small fraction of collective bargaining situations. The Labor Department, for instance, estimates that employers and unions maintain about 125,000 separate contracts.

Sees No End To Overproduction Of Dairy Products

WASHINGTON (AP)—A government dairy expert told a farm outlook conference Wednesday there is no end in sight for the dairy industry's problem of overproduction of milk.

H. C. Kriesel, dairy specialist of the department's Marketing Service, said this year had brought about improvement in some of the economic problems facing dairy men.

"However, the dairy industry as a whole," he said, "is still going along in a condition of 'uncertain disequilibrium.' Not only does supply exceed demand at price support levels but returns to farm labor resources engaged in dairying continue relatively low."

Kriesel said that perhaps the greatest uncertainty in the dairy situation are the questions of just how long overproduction will continue and whether surpluses will grow larger.

The conference is being attended by several hundred state farm extension workers and department officials.

Kriesel said a significant annual increase in milk production seems likely in the near future barring sharply subnormal crops and pasture.

"Further increases may occur in consumer incomes but, as has been observed in recent years, demand for dairy products increases very slowly."

As a consequence, he said, the total demand for dairy products likely will increase less rapidly than will the population of the country.

GOP Leaders See Campaign By TV, Radio If Ike Runs

CHICAGO (AP)—Republican leaders Wednesday considered the possibility that President Eisenhower may campaign mainly by television and radio—if he decides to seek a second term.

Leonard W. Hall, the GOP national chairman, mentioned that possibility after he told newsmen that the President's decision may be delayed until late February or early March, following a physical examination.

Hall held a news conference while members of the Republican National Committee laid the groundwork for a 1956 election drive pegged to a "peace and prosperity" theme.

The chairman, who Monday had his first meeting with Eisenhower since the President's Sept. 24 heart attack, reiterated his belief that Eisenhower will run "if he feels he is able."

Hall said he and the President talked about many phases of the political situation and added that he came away from the Gettysburg, Pa., meeting with the thought that Eisenhower has a "continuing interest" in the subject.

Hall told newsmen he had received no word of "disapproval" from the White House following his expression that Eisenhower would run if he feels able.

Hall was asked if Eisenhower would be able to make a "vigorous" campaign if he runs again. He replied that television has "revolutionized campaigning," and added:

"The greater part of campaigning from now on will be on television and radio."

The State Hospital committee composed of Mrs. Clyde North and Mrs. Harry Rueter requests that members do not bring gifts for the State Hospital patients to this meeting since the Home Bureau has been asked to make other arrangements concerning this project.

Bond Sales In County $132,891 During October

Morgan County sales of E and H United States Savings Bonds in the month of October, 1955, totaled $132,891, according to Frank Osborne Elliott and Arthur J. French, general Savings Bonds Co-Chairmen for the U. S. Treasury Department.

Sales in the state of Illinois totaled $35,861,743 according to T. Merle Paul, State Sales Director for Illinois, showing an increase of 12% over October sales last year.

87% of the 1955 quota of $499,400,000 has been reached in the first ten months and according to Mr. Paul prospects for making the quota and continuing to lead all other states in dollar sales are very good.

Illinois sales for the month accounted for 89% of the national sales which were $404,302,000.

Dirksen Asks Ike Name S. L. Golan To ICC Post

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Dirksen (R-Ill.) was reported Wednesday to have asked President Eisenhower to name Samuel Leonard Golan, a Chicago lawyer, to succeed Hugh W. Cross on the Interstate Commerce Commission.

A highly placed source, declining to be quoted by name, said Dirksen has submitted the request in a letter to the White House.

Cross resigned as commission member and chairman last week on the heels of a Senate investigation of his possible role in the negotiations of a contract between Western railroad companies and a Chicago bus line operator.

Cross was a Republican hold-over from the Truman administration. He said accusations against him in connection with the contract were "baseless" but that "the mere tendency of such charges impairs my further service on the commission."

Golan, a Republican, now is a member of the U. S.-Canadian Boundary Commission. He is a member of the Chicago law firm of Golan and Golan.

His brother, Eli, is a judge on the Illinois Tax Appeals Court.

Movie Passes Will Reward Safe Drivers

Chief Ike Flynn and members of the Jacksonville police department issued a last-minute appeal Wednesday to all motorists and pedestrians to help make Safe Driving Day a complete success in this city.

"The object is S-D (Safe Driving Day) Thursday is to have 24 hours of accident-free driving throughout the nation, and Jacksonville hopes to do its share," Chief Flynn said.

Members of the department will carry passes to the Illinois and Times Theaters Thursday, and when they see drivers who are especially courteous and safety conscious, theater tickets will be given to the drivers.

Presentation of movie passes has been going on several days as the police department rewarded good drivers, calling attention to the safety goals. The following good drivers have received awards:

A. Harold Mason, Manchester; Kathryn Taylor, 103 Pearl street; Raymond Farmer, 718 North Main street; Donald Dalton, 321 East Beecher avenue; Mrs. A. E. Downstater Backs Sachs Candidacy For Governor

CAIRO, Ill. (AP)—A former Alexander County sheriff and Democratic political leader said Wednesday he will organize a downstate committee to back the candidacy of Chicago merchant Morris B. Sachs for governor.

Charles Koehler, a former Democratic state representative from the 50th Senatorial District, said his first choice for the Democratic nomination for governor would be Cook County (Chicago) Clerk Edward J. Barrett.

However, Koehler added in a statement, he understood Barrett will seek reelection as county clerk so "the choice candidate is Sachs."

Koehler said he believes "Sachs would be a second Henry Horner, who was elected governor of Illinois in 1932 and who represented downstate interests and who re-elected with the Democratic organization of Chicago being against him in the primary."

"I feel," Koehler said, "that a downstate organization should be formed as a Sachs-for-Governor Committee."

Sachs, a Chicago clothier and city treasurer, announced his candidacy for governor Nov. 9. He said he will run regardless of whether he receives the backing of the regular Cook County Democratic organization.

The 52-year-old clothing merchant was defeated for the nomination for Chicago's city treasurer early this year by an organization candidate in the Democratic primary. However, he made such a showing that the state makers made a quick change to get him on the ballot for the general election.

Sachs was elected city treasurer in April by a larger margin than Mayor Richard J. Daley, who topped the Democratic ticket.

Soviet Antarctic Expedition Sails
MOSCOW (AP)—The big Soviet Antarctic expedition sailed Wednesday from Kalingrad, formerly the German city of Königsberg, to set up three scientific stations on the Queen Mary Coast on the Indian Ocean.

The group, headed by Mikhail Somov, geographer and doctor of science, sailed aboard two powerful diesel-electric ships, the Ob and Lena.

Somov said their main base will be named "Smirny" (Peaceful), American and Australian bases will be nearby.

Various countries will cooperate in an international exploration of the antarctic continent in connection with the forthcoming International Geophysical Year. The scientists will seek to increase their knowledge of climate, weather, earthquakes, glaciers, geology, solar activity, the sea and upper atmosphere.

Somov said his expedition plans to remain three years.

Funeral Service For T. J. Sullivan Set For Friday

Funeral services for Attorney T. J. Sullivan, 77, a former state representative from this district, will be held at 9 o'clock Friday morning in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception at Springfield. Burial will be made in Walnut Ridge cemetery at Virginia.

The remains are at the O'Donnell Funeral Home in Springfield.

Friends may call at the funeral home from 3 to 10 p.m. Thursday, and where the rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. Thursday.

In place of flowers the family suggests a remembrance to St. John's Crippled Children's Home.

Attorney Sullivan, a veteran leader in the Democrat party, died Tuesday at St. John's hospital in Springfield where he had been a patient six weeks.

For 20 years he served the 45th senatorial district, consisting of Morgan and Sangamon counties. He was known personally by hundreds of Morgan county citizens and was a frequent visitor here over a long period of years.

For several years during his long career he was an assistant attorney general of Illinois.

Mr. Sullivan served as a member of the House of Representatives from 1926 until Jan. 5, 1935, with the exception of eight years when he was an assistant attorney general of Illinois, a post to which he was appointed by Attorney General Otto Kerner. He declined renomination to the House in 1934 after serving 10 terms, and was succeeded in his post by Allen T. Lucas, Springfield attorney.

Mr. Sullivan leaves one son, Frank R. of Springfield; three grandchildren, Deborah, Martha and David Sullivan, all of Springfield; one sister, Mrs. Andrew J. Murphy, Louisiana; and several nieces and nephews.

His wife the former Venah E. Robinson of Virginia died Sept. 23, 1938.

In recent years Mr. Sullivan resided at Hotel Abraham Lincoln. Active in fraternal and civic affairs, he was a member of the Elks, Sangamo club, Knights of Columbus, the Illinois Country club, Springfield Mercantile club, Sangamon County Bar association and the Illinois Bar association.

He was born Sept. 25, 1879 in Mexico, Audrain county, Mo. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Tim Sullivan. His father was an employee of the Chicago & Alton railroad 35 years.

During his years in the legislature Sullivan served as minority leader and chairman of the judiciary committee, and was a member of many important committees. He sponsored and assisted in passing many major bills.

Rep. Boyle Visits U.S. Servicemen In Prison In Japan

TOKYO (Thursday) (AP)—Rep. Charles A. Boyle (D-Ill.) Wednesday visited 52 convicted U.S. servicemen and found them "cold, but pretty clean, cheerful and healthy" in Japan's Fuchu Prison.

Boyle is here to obtain data for the House Judiciary Committee on the trial and punishment of U.S. servicemen convicted by foreign courts for offenses committed off duty and outside their camps.

Boyle told a newsmen he was disturbed that Americans sometimes were held in solitary confinement without much reason but added that "conditions are constantly improving."

He said he was told the 52 Americans, 2 British and 2 Dutch servicemen doing time in Japan would be moved soon to a better heated prison.

"They looked pretty good, weightwise," the congressman said, adding that their main complaint was that the "food is terrible."

Boyle said he hopes to discuss his findings with Army Secretary Wilbur Brucker, who is due here next week.

Volunteer Firemen Hunt While Farm Home Burns Down

YORK, Pa. (P) — Mrs. Cletus Bentz saw smoke puffing from her neighbor's farm home Tuesday and called the volunteer fire department at New Salem, a mile away.

"I'm sorry," she was told, "but all the firemen have gone hunting." (Pennsylvania's deer season opened Monday.)

Mrs. Bentz's call had been taken by Harry Noss, who runs a gas station in New Salem and also takes all the calls for the volunteer firemen.

Noss figured he'd have to get somebody to the fire, so he tried to call the volunteer unit in Jacobus, six miles distant. But two women were talking on his 10-party line and refused to give it up, he said. Noss waited a bit, then tried again. The women were still talking and still in no mood to stop.

After another wait, this one lasting over 10 minutes, he got through to West York, also six miles away.

When the firemen got to the scene, the house, owned by George Sheets, was burned down.

TRAFFIC QUICKIE

MOLINE, Ill. (P) — Mrs. Richard Haegeman paid a $1 fine for illegally parking in an alley. She reappeared seven minutes later in the same cafeteria court with a second ticket which charged her with leaving her car overtime in a metered zone while she was paying the first fine.

Traffic Lt. Ray Kinkead voided the second ticket and returned Mrs. Haegeman's "thank you" with a smile.

A-Bomb Scientist Saved From Burial In Potter's Field

NEW YORK (P) — The widow of a scientist who helped develop the first atomic bomb says she has arranged to have him buried in Rochester, N. Y., thereby saving him from a potter's field burial here.

Mrs. Leonie M. Charles, who had been estranged from her husband, told of the Rochester burial arrangement Tuesday night.

City officials had said earlier that she told them she had "no funds" and wanted him to have a city burial.

Mrs. Charles said city officials had told her he would be buried in the city cemetery but she did not realize this meant potter's field.

The husband, Donald Randolph Charles, 46, was found dead in a hotel room Saturday, apparently a suicide. Found in the room was a note reading: "No job, no home, no property, no kin."

Mrs. Charles, who lives at Woods Hole, Mass., and came here to identify the body, said she and her husband separated last summer and she had not seen him since.

Charles, a Phi Beta Kappa student and a doctor of philosophy in zoology, was among scientists sent to Japan after the war to study effects of the atomic bomb on survivors.

He had worked on the famed Manhattan Project, which developed the bomb from 1943 to 1945. From 1948 to 1954 he headed the biology department of the University of Rochester.

Recently he worked for the Haloid Co. in Rochester, which does work in photographic processes. He was last seen in Rochester Nov. 8 when he came to New York, presumably for a business trip.

Mrs. Charles said Tuesday night she had talked with city officials about having her husband buried in a municipal cemetery and offered to make a deposit. She said she was told this would not be necessary and that she would be billed after his burial in "New York Cemetery."

"I later learned this New York Cemetery is Potter's field," she added. "I had no idea it was called that. I now have arranged to have him buried in Rochester."

Friends of Charles have reported that he knew for a year and a half that he was suffering from incurable Hodgkin's disease, a gland ailment.

4-H Club Work Earns Trophies

CHICAGO (P) — A young woman from North Dakota and a young man from New Mexico today were pronounced winners of a silver trophy and a scholarship for their achievements in 4-H club work. They are Angela Heine, 20, a dark-haired lass from Ellendale, N. D., and Frank McKay, 20, of Clayton, N. M.

Each will receive a silver trophy posted as a prize by President Eisenhower. Each also earned a $300 scholarship.

Scholarships worth $300 each were won by Eldon Rebhorn, 20, of Oswego, Ill., and Ann Guindon, 20, of Plainington, S. D., for leadership in 4-H work.

STOLEN ROMANCE

CHULA VISTA, Calif. (P) — A burglar stole a kiss, Miss Patricia de Vany, 26, awakened by the kiss, said the man also fled with some of her freshly laundered sheer garments which she had hung in the bedroom to dry.

She told police the intrusion and thefts were particularly embarrassing because she is engaged to be married.

South Jacksonville Cub Pack 113 Meets At School

South Jacksonville Cub Scout pack 113 met Friday, Nov. 25, at South Jacksonville Elementary School. Cubs and their pack leaders wore colorful Indian "war bonnets," made as a project during November.

Russell Gotchall led the colors before a large audience of parents, guests and visiting Cubs.

An induction ceremony, conducted by assistant Cubmaster Verne Jarrett, was held for these new Cubs: Larry Thompson, Jimmy Sheehan, Larry Massey, Gary Book and Larry Veiter.

The Wolf badge with one gold arrow was presented to Van Lane. The Bear award with one gold arrow was given to Monty Secrist, and the Bear award with one gold and one silver arrow to Phil Howe.

Service stars for one year were presented to Warren Massey, Steve Belcher, George Trotter, Ricky Watson, Jerry Day, Gary Hoyt, Phillip Howe, Van Lane, John Little and Doug Massey.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ennis were introduced by chairman Don Littler as the new den dad and mother for Den 8. The addition of Den 8 brings the membership of Pack 113 to a new peak.

To complete the program, centered around the theme "America The Beautiful," Randolph Little introduced Jayne Henley and her father, Wayne Henley, who showed colored slides of their climb up Mt. Whitney in California.

Gaylord Spots, better known as the University of Illinois' "Chief Illiniwek," contributed to the Indian atmosphere by describing some Indian dances and told of their meaning.

Wayne Blackman, chairman of the committee, announced that the next dance will be held Dec. 3.

After retirement of the colors, refreshments were served by Mrs. Ed Thompson's den.

INTELLECTUAL SMOG ALERT

For years it was almost one of the clichés of our democracy that many people were woefully ignorant about the simplest aspects of national and world affairs. Recently, however, there have been signs that the general level of information among the American citizenry is rising.

If this is actually so, perhaps one of the scientific foundations ought to undertake a study to see where people are getting their information. There is some doubt they get it in school.

Professor Preston Albright, a Miami (Ohio) University history teacher, writes in the current issue of the magazine School and Society that most college freshmen are foggy on their American history.

He made a check and got some astonishing results. Some students misplaced the Civil War by a couple of centuries. Some thought World War I was fought in the 1930's. A few said Grover Cleveland was president at the time.

Nearly all knew George Washington was the nation's first president, but less than a fourth could tell when he took office. All knew that the head of this government today is President Eisenhower, but many came up with weird spellings of his name.

We don't know how widespread these youthful blank spots are. But they suggest glaring weakness in our vaunted system of education.

The World Today

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—The lack of schoolteachers is one of the biggest dilemmas before the President's White House Conference on Education, which is meeting here for four days.

Will higher salaries get more men and women into teaching and keep them teaching? That's one of the possible solutions. The Fund for the Advancement of Education doubts it's the only one.

The fund, a private organization doing research in this field, points to another reason why more people don't make teaching a career: promotion is too slow and is not based on performance but on time served and credits accumulated.

What kind of salaries do teachers get? And how many teachers are needed? The following information has been put together from statistics gathered by the fund, the National Education Assn. and the U.S. Office of Education.

Right now in public and private schools — elementary, high and college—there are about 37,900,000 students. In 10 years the number will be an estimated 51,502,000.

More teachers will be needed not only to take care of the increase in the number of students but to replace teachers who quit for better jobs in private business or women who quit to be married and stay home.

S. M. Brownell, commissioner of the U.S. Office of Education, estimates there was a shortage of 141,300 qualified teachers this year.

But the number of college graduates has been going down. They reached an all-time high in 1950 when 434,000 were graduated. In 1955 the number was 285,000. They were of the generation born in the depression. Births picked up during and after the war. The number of college graduates in the future will increase.

But the President's committee on the White House conference says that only 86,696 of those graduated from college in 1955 were qualified to teach in grammar and high schools.

The fund says that to "maintain the present over-all pupil-teacher ratio, the schools will have to enlarge their teaching staffs more in the next 10 years than in the previous 35. The colleges and universities will have to add more teachers in the next 15 years than in all previous history combined."

There are now about 1,110,600 qualified people teaching but about 7 1/2 per cent of the teachers drop out of the profession every year. They have to be replaced in addition to the extra teachers needed to handle the increased school enrollments.

The national average of teachers' pay in 1954-55 for grammar schools was $3,614 and for high schools, $4,194. The average for both combined was $3,816.

The range was wide between one state and another. New York paid the highest average grammar school teacher salary — $4,700; Mississippi paid the lowest — $1,880.

For high school teachers California ($5,400) and New York ($5,375) paid the highest average salary. Mississippi and Arkansas, paying an average of $2,400 each, were at the bottom of the list.

Saving Some Nickels on Foreign Aid Stirs Ruction

BY PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The annual hassle over continuance of foreign aid is beginning earlier than usual.

American technical experts and advisers at the Big Four Foreign Ministers Conference are coming back to town with dire shakes of the head.

The word is that, insofar as the cold war is concerned, it's going to be a hard winter. It is predicted that every U. S. resource will be needed against international communism.

From Gettysburg, however, comes the word that the U. S. budget is to be balanced this year and next, willy nilly.

THIS YEAR'S BUDGET call for foreign aid expenditures of $3.9 billion. (For military assistance, $2.15 billion. For economic defense support, $1.75 billion.) Total expenditures for the year ending last June 30 were around $4.5 billion.

International Cooperation Administrator John B. Hollister—who succeeded Harold Stassen on the foreign aid job and now works under supervision of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles—says the budget now being prepared for next year is not far short of this year's.

A plan is under consideration, however, to cut economic aid expenditures by around $350 million. This would be put in a special reserve for emergencies.

Whether this would be a saving or mere bookkeeping isn't clear.

It is interesting to note that this $350 million figure is only a little short of the $390 million saving in foreign economic aid recommended by ex-President Herbert Hoover's Commission on reorganization.

SEVERAL FACTORS may upset these ideas of economy.

On the military side, nothing has as yet been charged off for equipping the new West German army. If the French pull out or are kicked out of Viet Nam, the U. S. will have to pick up a bigger tab there. And strengthening of the southeast Asia military forces will cost money. South Korean and Nationalist China aid will be increased.

On the economic side, there will be a $35 million, one-shot expenditure to set up the new International Finance Corp. lending agency.

If Congress approves a big new giveaway of U. S. farm surpluses, the cost could be heavy.

Direct U. S. technical assistance to individual underdeveloped countries is expected to increase to nearly $100 million. Aid is now going to 65 countries. Several new ones may be added.

AMERICAN ASSISTANCE to free world countries in setting up atomic energy research reactors for peaceful uses will cost an undetermined additional millions.

Congressional sentiment in the past few years has been heavily in favor of reducing overseas aid as wasteful. Junketing congressmen have come home almost unanimously in their belief that most foreign countries are now largely self-supporting.

The trend is towards helping those in need by loans rather than outright grants.

But the new Russian challenge of economic warfare must be met head on.

In Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Carlyle Mitchell is a man with a double life. One day he runs a million-dollar import business. The next, he's a successful character actor in movies and TV.

And lest he be accused of taking jobs from actors, he has brought actors into his own business—with amazing success.

Mitchell is a handsome, deep-voiced man of middle years who operates his business from a plant on South Western avenue in Los Angeles. He also has agents in Japan, Germany and Sweden, an equipment repair plant in the Philippines and a pre-fabricating enterprise in Indonesia.

He has made more from the uranium boom than most prospectors. One of his products is a toy Geiger counter that won a top prize among 16,000 entries in the National Toy Show.

But Mitchell will put his thriving enterprise aside whenever he gets a call from his agent to play in films. Such is the lure of grease paint.

"I must admit," he smiled, "that I get a bigger kick out of acting than anything else I've ever done."

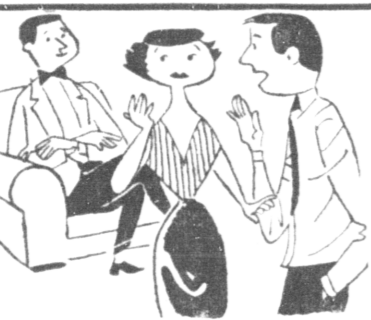

He has been acting for less than two years. It happened quite by accident. A friend asked him to take the stage manager's role in an amateur production of "Our Town," which was put on for a March of Dimes benefit. Mitchell did it.

An actor who ran a Hollywood drama school said Mitchell had promise, offered him the producer's role in a local presentation of "The Big Knife." This brought him to the attention of producers, directors and agents, and the jobs started coming in.

In a year and a half, Mitchell has performed in 26 TV films and nine features, including "A Man Called Peter," "There's Always Tomorrow" and "The Eddy Duchin Story." It's a tribute to the movies' type casting that he often plays businessmen, though he's also been FBI men, doctors, generals, etc.

Michigan's Upper Peninsula once produced half the world's supply of copper. Now it furnishes only four per cent of the domestic supply.

Manners Make Friends

If someone makes a slighting remark about a friend of yours, don't lend weight to his statement by silence. That's the time to speak up and say something constructive about the person being criticized. Good manners doesn't demand that you sit in silence while a friend is being criticized.

Loyalty does demand that you rise to his defense.

Kitchen, Like Octopus, Is Taking Over Entire House

If the architects and furniture designers don't quit thinking up new uses for the living room, housewives are someday going to revolt and demand the return of the old-fashioned, ready-for-company parlor.

First they robbed us of the dining room, taking one end of the parlor for a "dining alcove."

Then they started making two-purpose furniture, so that the davenport could turn into a bed, thereby converting the living room into a bedroom for overnight guests. There's a table that can be folded up to make a desk so that Papa doesn't need a separate study. There are cabinets that turn out to be bars so that the living room can be turned into a cocktail lounge.

Let's see now, what does that make the living room so far? Just a living room, dining room, bedroom, study and cocktail lounge.

IT'S TIME FOR WOMEN TO TALK BACK

As if that isn't enough for one poor, tired, overcrowded room an industrial designer, Dave Chapman by name, says the next step that he and others like him will take is "to bring the kitchen into the living room."

When and if the designers succeed in doing that we might just as well start building one-room houses. Or, of course, we could get our backs up and say firmly that, just like Grandma, we want to sit in a parlor, eat in a dining room, cook in a kitchen, do our serious thinking and reading in a study, and sleep in a bedroom.

Great-great-grandma was mighty happy when she could get out of a one-room sod hut or log cabin and into a house with the privacy and dignity of separate rooms for separate functions.

And the woman of tomorrow may be just as happy to retreat to the privacy of partitioned living if the designers don't stop moving everything into the living room.

FOR A SPLENDID GARNISH for succulent roast turkey, use cooked onion cups filled with creamed peas.

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor
Golden roasted turkey, oozing delectable juices is a traditional Christmas choice for many families. Supplies are big this year. The large town turkeys particularly will be economical.

There are large supplies this year of the frozen "tucked" turkey in both the regular styles and the small-grown Beltsville size.

These turkeys, oven-ready, come with a slit cut low on the breast through which the legs are held. After thawing, pull the legs from the band holding them, stuff and then slip the legs back in place. The difficult trussing operation is eliminated.

In purchasing turkey, allow 11 pounds per person of the ready-to-roast weight to provide ample servings for the feast day and those important leftovers. Purchase your frozen bird a few days in advance to allow them to thaw in the refrigerator. However, if you do not purchase it until the day before the holiday, thaw the wrapped bird in a pan set under cold running water or leave in the refrigerator one day and complete thawing under cold running water. The turkey should be completely thawed before stuffing.

For safety's sake, however, do not stuff the turkey until just before it goes into the oven. As a time-saver, plan to have your dry stuffing ingredients ready in advance, requiring only combining with the liquid when you are ready to stuff the bird.

An attractive garnish for the turkey platter is big cooked onion cups filled with creamed peas. Boil onions a day in advance. Remove centers, reheat and fill with creamed peas just before serving.

Cornbread Stuffing (Yield 9 cups. Enough to stuff a 12-pound bird).

One and one-half cups finely chopped onion, 1 1/2 cups finely chopped celery, 1/3 cup butter, 8 cups crumbled cornbread, 11 teaspoons salt, 1 teaspoon pepper, 1 teaspoon poultry seasoning, 1 teaspoon sage, 1 cup water, 1 egg, well beaten.

Cook onion and celery in butter in a skillet until tender. Add mixture to crumbled cornbread which has been placed in a large pan. Soak with seasonings which have been mixed together. Combine. Add water and egg. Toss together with forks. Stuff thawed bird immediately and roast.

HOLIDAY OR GALA DINNER: Roast turkey, cornbread stuffing, giblet gravy, large onions stuffed with green peas, cranberry jelly.

Boyle's Column

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Curbstone reflections of a pavement Plato:

The world has always been a merry-go-round.

It still is. Looking at the present merry-go-round, what do we find? Let us go around the world, starting with the American.

The American doesn't feel the need of war. He is enjoying the highest level of individual and national prosperity ever achieved in the history of mankind. To defend that happiness, however, he feels at heart ready, willing and able to deal death to any quarter of the globe that threatens him. He hopes he'll never have to fight again — but he'll fight. And he'll fight on.

The English, following their modern pattern, concede in advance that their situation is hopeless militarily. They are reconciled to a fight in which they will never ever really give up.

The Frenchman, individual as ever, takes pride in his empire overseas but refuses to be drafted to defend it. As his hired soldiers from abroad dwindle, his empire will dwindle. Meanwhile, he'll claim a hold on the world's culture.

The German, having learned his lesson, is as always ready to fill the nearest gap of power, then fall to pondering whether, after all, he couldn't really win a world — if he could fight in only one direction at a time.

The Russian is trying to do everything. He is trying to be above all, militarily self contained. He wants to keep a foot on Germany, build housing for his masses, create and maintain the world's largest war machine, and put Red China on the back at the same time he feels for a weak spot he may use later.

The Chinese are riding the peak of their wave. In their land revolution climbs a Red throne, and reaches from yesterday toward today.

Crowded India yearns to be the fulcrum, the balance point between the East and West, but vast China holds out the crimson hand of bargaining.

Industrious, market - hungry Japan, bounding back fast, reaches toward China, meanwhile sells in America.

In America a vast war machine is maintained and eternally refurbished, and new atomic power reactors are steadily built.

Everywhere in the world people are building in hopes of peace and worrying about war.

This is the merry-go-round. So it has usually been before. So it will probably be as long as one people or one country fears another.

Providence (R.I.) College is the only college on the North American continent operated by the Dominican Fathers.

* DR. JORDAN SAYS * Diabetes Insipidus Cases Are Comparatively Rare

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

A correspondent writes that she has diabetes insipidus and would like a discussion of this condition.

It is an extraordinary disease to write about but it is most important that it should not be confused with the more common "sugar diabetes" which is an entirely different disease.

Diabetes insipidus is a comparatively unusual disease though it has been recognized since the 17th century.

As readers of this column know, the principal source of the difficulty in "sugar diabetes" lies in the pancreas, lying in the abdomen, in diabetes insipidus it is in a small gland of internal secretion in the brain.

In Diabetes Insipidus, large quantities of urine are passed but it does not contain sugar.

This disease is more common in young people than in older ones and in boys and men than in girls and women.

The underlying cause usually cannot be discovered. A family tendency, perhaps a truly inherited one, has been suggested as responsible in the majority of cases but this is not always clear.

The symptoms usually develop gradually though sudden onsets have been reported. A great increase in the amount of urine excreted is the most constant symptom and an increased amount of thirst is also frequent. Someone suffering from diabetes insipidus may pass nearly four gallons of urine in 24 hours.

The inconvenience of this disease is therefore obvious especially if the victim attempts to quench the accompanying thirst. The appetite is likely to be normal which is different from that in the common form of sugar diabetes in which hunger is likely to be excessive.

In Many Cases the general health does not seem to suffer. People have been known to live with diabetes insipidus for 50 years; some spontaneous recoveries have taken place.

The location of the trouble is fairly well known. It is pretty well agreed it lies in a portion of the brain. Irritation or injury of this region will produce the symptoms of diabetes insipidus.

Removal of spinal fluid has sometimes been followed by great improvement. Giving a hormone obtained from the pituitary gland usually brings about relief of symptoms which lasts for many hours. These treatments, however, have to be repeated and do not bring about a permanent cure. Until more has been learned about its origin, it is unlikely that much progress will be made in management.

PARKING FEES RISING, T.
DETROIT (AP)—Higher taxes, increased wages and bigger cars have resulted in a boost of parking lot fees in downtown Detroit. William H. Coy, general manager of the Detroit Parking Assn., says increased parking fees are in effect at about 40 per cent of downtown lots. Increased tax assessments have contributed to the rise, Coy says, and "newer, wider and much longer automobiles have cut the capacity of lots by a tremendous amount."

Why Are We Afraid to Assert Ourselves to Our Children?

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

What do we do when Johnny tells us to "shut up"? Gratifying if wish, we shut up, according to a new book "Early Years of Childhood." Then, when he later demands a promise, story, or explanation from us, we face him with the disagreeable consequence of his wish. We shake our heads and say, "No, you told me to shut up."

This treatment will give Johnny the "insight" he must have to change his rude behavior, say authors Catherine Stern and Toni S. Gould. They call it "education through insight"—and hail it as the solution to our child-training problems.

It sounds like education through bad consequences to me—and for this reason, not very practical.

It sounds like education through bad consequences to me—and for this reason, not very practical.

Mind, I think it's lovely when a child gets "insight" spontaneously into the unprofitableness of some misbehavior. The trouble is, we can't just stand by while he misbehaves so that he can produce some bad consequences into which we can give him "insight."

If Johnny is playing with the kitchen faucet, we'll find it proper to speak to him, despite his command to "shut-up"—and our desire to punish him by our silence.

Though Ellen may protest wearing sweaters, we can't expose her to bronchitis to provide her with "insight" in her unreasonableness.

As these little children's authorities, we can't always expose them to the lessons available in bad consequences of misbehavior. We often have to protect against these consequences—and postpone their "insights" to move on what our own insights tell us to do from moment to moment.

I prefer the direct response to the small boy who tells us to "shut up." Instead of trying to organize his "insight" for him, I'd rather say amiably, "Indeed and I shan't be quiet for anyone who tells me to shut up. Why should I be quiet for anyone so rude?"

Why are we so afraid of any direct assertion of ourselves to children? Why does controlling them scare us so that we want to pass the job over to their own "insight"?

No longer do we harass children with relentless perfectionism. We demand—we persecute ourselves with them. For the very psychic, I authorities that went on and on about how dreadful was Victorian discipline said to us, "Parents, be seen and not heard lest you offend." So we are not heard any more.

No, the psychologists haven't done away with the Firm Parent. They've just given him adults instead of children for victims.

Yes, I'm glad to be Mama's little helper—do I get time and a half for overtime like the plumber?

DAM wheeled about.

"Hal, out the back way. Don't let them see you!"

Crane gave him a single, startled glance. He stood indecisive a second and then strode swiftly to the rear of the store. Dan heard the back door close and he watched the approaching outlaws with more confidence.

Pace led the other two. He opened the door and came in, pale eyes sweeping the room and then resting on Dan and Ernie. Juarez and Egan, looking mean and dangerous, glowered about the room. Pace nodded to Ernie and then looked sharply at Dan.

"Don't you stop when someone calls you?"

Dan managed a look of surprise and Pace shrugged.

"Where's Hal Crane? I saw him come in here."

Dan cut in easily. "He was here. Left a while ago."

"Where?"

Dan shrugged. "I don't know. What do you want with him?"

Pace smiled and his face looked angelic except for the eyes. "Why, we want to give him a dose of lead, Murdock. Things have changed considerably since morning."

"I guessed it," Dan said. He shot a glance at Vic. "I suppose you want the whole town."

Pace cocked his head to one side, considering, and his smile grew brighter. "Maybe, I'll decide about the town. It's mine now, you know. But I was mainly thinking about the company of a certain young lady. Thought I'd tell you so you could keep your distance. I've already warned Starrett."

Dan's face turned pale and Pace awaited, watching, the smile touching the red lips.

He checked, his attention held by something down the aisle. He walked to the display of hats, reached for a pearl-gray one, examined it. Vic edged toward him.

"You like it, Mr. Odium? It's the very best."

Pace put it on, curved the brim. He looked at himself in the mirror, then picked up his old, battered hat and sailed it to the back of the store.

"It fits. I'll take it," Pace said. He started back up the aisle, leaving Vic standing, mouth sagging with surprise.

"Mr. Odium! Mr. Odium! You didn't pay me."

Pace halted, turned slowly, red lips pursed.

"So I didn't. I guess one slug's enough."

His hand blurred and the gun blasted. Vic spun half around and fell back against the counter, catching himself. His eyes were round with fright and surprise and he lifted his hand to his side. His lips moved soundlessly and then he slowly turned half around and crumpled in the aisle. Ernie screamed.

"Keep the change."

He touched his hat brim in a mock salute and left.

Dan shouted at Bob.

"Take care of your Dad. Art, go get Doc Langer and bring him here."

As Dan had hoped, the bullet had ripped through Vic's side low on the hip. It had struck no organs but Doc guessed that it might have grooved the hip joint. There was a chance Vic would always have a stiff leg.

ART FRAZIN, after hurrying back with Doc Langer, stood in the aisle close to his father, watching the doctor examine and bandage the wound. His face had grown steadily more pale, held a greenish hue for a time and then cleared again, back to a strange white that made the freckles stand out like pennies. His lips quivered several times and he made a visible effort to control his tears.

Suddenly Art Frazin could hold himself in no longer. "I did it," Art sobbed, "I did it, and look what it caused. It's my fault."

Bob's fingers tightened around the slender arm. "You did what?" Art spoke between sobs. "I... sort of figured the outlaws... were real men... Up to now I liked 'em... I listened when you... and Pop and Dan talked about the gun."

DAN stepped forward to the boy. "What about the gun?"

"I slipped out... told Mr... Mr. Bruhn about it. They knew before you... started over there."

"Why, you crazy, pigheaded runt!" Bob said savagely and his hand smacked across the boy's face. Art fell back, arms up across his head, fearing more blows. Dan quickly stepped in between the two brothers, forcing Bob back.

"Take it easy, Bob. He's just a kid."

"Sure! He robbed us of our chance and this wouldn't have happened today. Art was just a kid putting some hardware up on a monument where they didn't belong. Now he knows better and he'll never go wrong again. You can't punish him any more than he's doing to himself... and will keep on doing, every time he looks at Vic. Leave him alone, Bob. We've got more important problems."

"I ought to..." Bob started but Dan pointed to Vic on the stretcher.

"You ought to get your Dad home and in bed."

Bob glanced at his younger brother, then grimly nodded and turned to the stretcher. Dan helped them carry Vic home, a touchy job because of the occasional patches of glare ice. Mrs. Frazin held grimly to her emotions and supervised placing her husband in the bed, then practically shoved the men out of the house.

Interpreting The News

By J. M. ROBERTS

Associated Press News Analyst

Outer Mongolia, which is causing such a hassle in the United Nations, was the first post-revolutionary objective of Russia's expansionist policy.

It is almost as much a part of Russia as the Ukraine. Indeed, the Ukrainians have given greater evidence of a desire for freedom than have the Mongols.

Russian agents staged a revolution in Outer Mongolia 31 years ago, and the Reds have held it ever since.

Admitting Outer Mongolia to the U.N. would be very much like the separate representation allowed the Ukraine. Puerto Rico has greater autonomy.

For centuries Mongolia was, for all intents and purposes a part of China. Inner Mongolia, into which the Reds also infiltrated, is now being reincorporated into Red China with Russian consent.

During the war Chiang Kai-shek wrote a book, suppressed for a time at Allied insistence, outlining his demands for return of territories lost by China over the long years. He wanted Hong Kong, part of Burma and, among other things, all of Mongolia. It's Chinese, he said, stretching things a little.

But the objective has always been part of Chinese policy, until the Reds made their deal with Moscow. Now Chiang is refusing to admit, by permitting U.N. membership, that the area is independent. He clings to his claims, just as he does regarding the mainland of China.

The United States feels much the same way, but is willing to admit

Outer Mongolia and four other Red nations as part of a package deal under which Russia would withhold the veto on admission of 13 non-Communist nations, some of them of considerable importance.

There is a great deal of resentment over the Nationalist Chinese stand among other U.N. delegations. Some are reminding forcefully that the Nationalists themselves are threatened with loss of membership through recognition of the fact that the Red regime at Peking actually controls all China except Formosa.

The Nationalists have no chance whatever of ever controlling Outer Mongolia. For the sake of the record they are alienating U.N. votes they are going to need some day. The principles and rights involved are so tenuous they hardly seem worth the risk.

GRACE CHURCH TO FEATURE CHRISTMAS MUSIC IN DECEMBER

The morning worship services of Grace church during December will be given over in large part to the rendition of Christmas music by the Chancel and Junior Choirs.
In song and story, the services will center around "The Christ of Christmas." A Christmas cantata,
"The Prophecy," as found in the scriptures will be presented in two parts, as follows: Dec. 4-Part I,
"A King is Promised" by the Chancel Choir and Part II, "The Story of the Incarnation," Chancel Choir.

On Dec. 18, "Christ is Born,"
Chancel and combined Junior
Choirs and on Christmas Sunday, familiar Christmas carols.

Following the Cantata, the nine-year will preach sermons appropriate to the music. Dec. 4, "The Background of Jesus," 11, "A Christmas Story, The Incarnation," 18, "The Best of All—God is With Us," and 25, "O Little Town of Bethlehem."

The present order of worship will be changed completely in order to give more time for the special music.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (P)—The post rency issued for that amount by the United States government in

Postmaster William E. Krenning said such currency, issued during the coin-scarce Civil War period, was known as a shin plaster. He passed it along to the federal reserve bank.

U. OF M. GROWING

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (P)—The University of Michigan is asking for 99 million dollars over the next five an enrollment of 30,000 within five years. It has 21,000 now; expects 22,300 next year.

sioner Hobart F. Rigg to officials of the 13 road districts. Rigg said a num-

BIRD GETS BLAME

GREENVILLE, S.C. (P)—A man says a bird gave him a cold.

He was a passenger on a bus whose windshield was broken when a guinea hen crashed through.

He said the glass on the hen struck him and caused "great pain and suffering." He also alleged he got a severe cold from drafts through the windshield.

He sued the bus company for $2,500.

CREDIT DEFERRED ST LOUIS P.—Harriet Londoff didn't hang around to claim credit when she saved from serious injury a boy whose hand caught in the rear bumper when he fell against a slowly moving car. His shouts unheard, the boy ran as fast as he could to keep up. Miss Londoff, in her car and noticing the boy's predicament, stepped on the gas and overtook the car just in time.

Later when her identity became known Miss Londoff explained she left the scene hurriedly because she recently got two speeding tickets and realized that in making the rescue she was guilty of speeding and running a stop sign.

FAST WORK PETERSBURG, Va. P.—Herbert Harrison, a rural resident, thinks Petersburg thieves pretty fast. He parked his car, was in a shop three minutes, and returned to find $25 in clothing stolen.

Bloodmobile At Meredosia Dec. 3; Quota 87 Pints

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will make a visit Saturday, Dec. 3, in Meredosia. The unit visited Jacksonville Oct. 28 and exceeded its quota for the county during that one day visit.

The Meredosia Woman's club is sponsoring the visit for the Meredosia area. The unit will be located at the high school. Morgan county residents who missed giving blood during the October visit may donate when the Bloodmobile visits Meredosia this Saturday. The hours are from 12 noon until 6 p.m.

Anyone wishing to reserve appointment time during 12 noon and 6 o'clock Saturday may write Mrs. Howard Edlen or Mrs. Irene Steinberg at Meredosia designating a preferred time.

The quota for the one day's visit at Meredosia is 87 pints. The thriving community should easily make its quota with the cooperation of its adult residents. Any healthy adult 18 years old and under 60 is qualified to be a blood donor. Young men, 18 to 21, are required to have the written consent of their parents. Qualified doctors and graduate nurses, staff aides and Gray Ladies will assist in the visit.

Glen James Weds Jane Willey At Versailles Sunday

VERSAILLES — Miss Jane Willey, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Willey, became the bride of Glen James, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester James of Meredosia, in a double ring ceremony performed Sunday, Nov. 27, in the Versailles Christian Church. The Rev. Carl Bartels, pastor of the church, conducted the nuptials.

Miss Sue Ann Hume of Versailles and Wayne Dickman of Jacksonville attended the couple. Mrs. Jess Henry furnished nuptial music at the piano.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents, near Versailles.

The couple later left on a short wedding trip.

Upon return Mr. and Mrs. James will make their home in Meredosia, where the groom is employed at the C.I.P.S. station. Before the wedding, the bride resigned her position with the state department at Springfield.

SOLID STEAM

HOUSTON, Tex. (P)—Fellow on an oil well drilling rig felt pretty silly. He forgot to close a vital valve, and instead of pumping quick-setting cement down the well, he filled two steam boilers with it.

HARVEST SIGHT — Wearing a "gown" of lettuce leaves, 1955's "Lettuce Queen of Phoenix, Ariz., and the Valley of the Sun" helps during harvest of the vegetable in Phoenix. She's Betty Borkenstein, 23.

SMART TURKEYS

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (P)—Some people think turkeys are stupid, but "they're wrong," says John Eddy, whose turkey farm at nearby Grand Junction has served as temporary housing for some 100,000 turkeys are stupid for facing the wind instead of turning their backs to it," Eddy says. "The bird is just being smart. That way the wind presses his feathers close to the body keeping him warm."

He says also that turkeys will not eat corn in hot weather because it raises their body temperatures.

MELLOWED WITH AGE

CHESTER, Ill. (P)—Gov. William G. Stratton was at a loss for words when he stopped at the bedside of Mrs. Mary Vernor, a 98-year-old resident of St. Ann's Home For The Aged.

After he was introduced, the governor repeated his name several times. "I'm very happy to meet you," the Illinois chief said. "I'm Gov. Stratton."

With a twinkle in her partially-blind eyes, Mrs. Vernor gingerly replied: "Well, what about it?"

Experiments have shown that hogs gain weight faster, especially during hot weather, if given night lights.

Serve True Blue Class Potluck Before Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Scribner and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller entertained the True Blue class of the Luter Baptist church recently at the church. A potluck supper preceded the meeting.

Mrs. Lena Masten offered devotions. Roll call was answered with each member relating something for which each was thankful. A white elephant sale was held. The class voted to send a gift to the Huddleston home.

Prizes were awarded to several who took an active part in various contests. The group enjoyed movies shown during the social hour. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. Ireland Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Elliott and Miss Edith Boston will be in charge of the Christmas meeting to be held at the church. There will be a fifty cent gift exchange.

EHRRHARDT, S. C. (P)—Henry Folk says he is going to name a section of his farm Rattlesnake Corner. He and a helper killed 18 rattlers there when the snakes crawled from under an old stump.
